OFFICE ORDER NO. 150/CP/2016

With reference to the 9 February 2016 incident of JNU campus, the High Level Enquiry Committee (HLEC) has found Ms. Anwesha Chakraborty (Registration Number: 34427, Enrolment No: 15/62/MS/038, Year of Admission: 2015, M.Phil./PhD. Student, Centre for Political Studies, School of Social Sciences) guilty on the following counts.

The university 'Rules and discipline and proper conduct of students of JNU', Clause 3 - Categories of misconduct and indiscipline', Category-II, Sub-Category (xxv) prohibits 'Any other act which may be considered by the VC or any other competent authority to be an act of violation of discipline and conduct'.

As per the HLEC recommendation, Ms. Anwesha Chakraborty has been found guilty of

- (a) lending her name in the poster titled "Against the Brahmic collective conscience! Against the judicial killing of Afzal Guru and Maqbool Bhatt..." in the name of Cultural Evening thus arousing communal and caste feelings

This act on the part of Ms. Anwesha Chakraborty is serious in nature, unbecoming of a student of JNU and calls for a strict disciplinary action against her. In view of this and also keeping her career prospects in mind, the Vice-Chancellor has taken a somewhat lenient view in the matter.

Ms. Anwesha Chakraborty is fined Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees twenty thousand only) and is also warned to be careful and not to get involved in such incidents in future. Otherwise, a more stringent disciplinary action will be taken against her. She is directed to deposit the fine by 13 May 2016 and show the proof thereof to this office, failing which the hostel facility will be withdrawn with immediate effect and further registration will not be allowed.

This has the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
