- V.11 (vii) In case of a need for immediate disciplinary action, the reasons for which the Chief Enquiry Officer shall state in writing, the Convener of the Vacations Committee shall call a Special Meeting to discuss, take a decision on the recommendations of the Enquiry Committee, and initiate further action on the complaint, in accordance with the procedures outlined in Section VI.4.

V.12. Annual Report of GSCASH

As required by the Supreme Court Judgement, the University authorities shall forward to the head of the institution, the Annual Report of GSCASH together with a written report on the Action Taken by them on the recommendations of the GSCASH and the Appeals Committee.

VI. FUNCTIONS OF GSCASH

GSCASH shall be responsible for the implementation of the recommendations of the Working Group on Sexual Harassment appointed by the Vice-Chancellor on 5 September 1997 the Supreme Court Judgement ,Saksham Guideline and workplace Act2014. GSCASH shall have four functions:

VI.1 Gender Sensitisation and Orientation

- VI.1 (i) GSCASH will ensure the prominent publicity of its Policy in all Centres, Schools, Hostels, offices of administration, as well as in all public places on the campus such as the library, health centre, residential areas, canteens, shopping centres, etc.
- VI.1 (ii) GSCASH will organize programmes for the gender sensitisation of the University community through workshops, seminars, posters, film shows, debates, skits, etc. It may enlist the help of specialized NGOs and any campus body to carry out these programmes.
- VI.1 (iii) GSCASH will conduct at least one major activity per semester involving large sections of the University community aimed at increasing the awareness regarding gender sensitisation.

VI.2. Crisis Management and Mediation

- VI.2 (i) GSCASH will assist in the mediation of situations arising out of incidents of sexual harassment and sexual assault on the campus.
- VI.2 (ii) GSCASH will co-ordinate with the campus security services to devise ways and means by which a system of crisis management that is gender-sensitive as well as prompt and effective is put in place. It will maintain regular contact with the campus security services to ensure that in crises arising out of incidents of sexual harassment, GSCASH members, and/or the volunteers identified by it, shall be intimated without delay.
- VI.2 (iii) GSCASH will, through a circular at the beginning of each semester, enlist and activate an adequately representative team of volunteers. GSCASH shall ensure the widespread publicity of the contact details (both official and personal) of all its members and volunteers.
- VI.2 (iv) GSCASH will organize training workshops for members and volunteers to equip them to handle sexual harassment cases (including legal and medical aspects of aid). Volunteers will assist in the gender sensitisation, crisis mediation and management duties of GSCASH, but shall not participate in the task of formal redressal of complaints under these Rules and Procedures of GSCASH.
- VI.2 (v) In cases in which sexually motivated conduct against a student, or a member of the academic or a non-teaching staff, or a resident and/or a service provider or outsider amounts to a specific offence under the Indian Penal Code or any other Indian law, GSCASH shall assist the affected party in making a complaint to the appropriate authority outside the University.
- VI.2 (vi) GSCASH in consultation with the Co-ordinator for Counsellors shall recommend and pay for counselling sessions and also decide on the continuation of sessions or termination of sessions. This information regarding the number of sessions should preferably be mentioned to the person seeking counselling before the counselling sessions start.

VI.3 (A) Complaints Filing Process1

- VI.3 (A) (i) Any student, resident, service provider, outsider, or a member of the academic or non-teaching staff may lodge a complaint of sexual harassment against a student, resident, service provider, outsider, or a member of the academic or non-teaching staff within a period of 3 months unless on valid grounds for which reason for delay is to be furnished to GSCASH. Third party complaints and witness complaints shall be entertained subject to verification by GSCASH. The GSCASH is empowered to take suo moto notice of grave violations of the basic principles of gender sensitivity and justice on this campus.
- VI.3 (A)(ii) Complaints can be lodged directly with any member of GSCASH, or through existing channels for lodging grievances, such as the University authorities, wardens, teachers, students, union/association representatives, administrative superior, or legal heir etc. If the complaint is made through any such channel, the person to whom the complaint is made should bring it to the notice of GSCASH within two working days of its receipt by her/him.

- VI.3 (A) (iii) Upon receipt of the complaint, the GSCASH member to whom the complaint is made shall at the earliest forward the same to the GSCASH office.
- VI.3 (A) (iv) The complaint may be oral or in writing. If the complaint is oral, it shall be recorded in writing by the GSCASH member receiving the complaint, on Form I, prescribed for the purpose (Schedule 2), and authenticated by the complainant under his/her dated signature or thumb impression as the case may be.

VI. 3. (B) Recording of Complaints

- a. The GSCASH office shall receive and record complaints of sexual harassment on Form I (Schedule 2) prescribed for the purpose. The Enquiry Committee shall carefully study the complaint and may hear the complainant and the defendant to determine whether an enquiry by GSCASH is required to be instituted.
- b. At no time in the complaints receiving and recording procedure shall the defendant(s) and the complainant be placed face to face, or put in a situation where they may be face to face (e.g. they shall not be called at the same time and be made to wait in the same place), keeping strictly in view the need to protect the complainant from facing any serious health and/or safety problems, in accordance with the guidelines in the Supreme Court Judgement.
- c. At no time in the complaints receiving and recording procedure shall the past sexual history of the complainant be probed into, as such information shall be deemed irrelevant to a complaint of sexual harassment.
- c. GSCASH may issue an order of restraint to the defendant(s) in accordance with the procedure outlined below in Section VI.3(C).
- d. The Enquiry Committee shall communicate its recommendations, along with the reasons and documentary evidence, if any, thereof, in writing to the Chairperson of GSCASH within 4 weeks.
- e. The GSCASH shall be responsible for making counselling services available to a person requesting for it on the recommendation of the Enquiry Committee.
- f. In a special provision for physically challenged complainants, or complainants in a serious medical condition, the Enquiry Committee may, on determining the complaint to be a prima facie complaint of sexual harassment, may go ahead with the enquiry proceedings.

VI. 3. (C) Restraint Order

- VI.3 (C) (i) A restraint order in terms of GSCASH Rules shall provide, on Form IV prescribed for the purpose (Schedule 2), a summary of the complaint, the date(s), time(s), and location(s), of the alleged incident(s). It shall warn the defendant(s) that any attempt on her /his part or by person(s) acting on his /her behalf, to contact, or influence, or intimidate, or exert pressure on the complainant or any person in the complainant's confidence may prove prejudicial to her/his case.
- VI.3 (C) (ii) the complainant or any other person should intimate in writing the Chairperson of GSCASH and/or the Enquiry Committee of any violation of the order of restraint by the defendant(s), or any persons acting on her /his behalf.
- VI.3 (C) (iii) The Chairperson of GSCASH, or the Enquiry Committee be convinced of the truth of such allegations, the Chairperson of GSCASH and/or the Chief Enquiry Officer may summon the defendant(s) in person and issue a verbal and written warning that such behaviour may lead to an adverse inference being drawn against her/him. The Enquiry Committee or GSCASH shall retain the right to close the enquiry proceedings, and to give an ex parte decision on the complaint.

- VI.3 (C) (iv) The Enquiry Committee and GSCASH shall consider all violations of the restraint order when determining the nature of offence of a defendant found guilty of sexual harassment.
- VI.3 (C) (v) If deemed necessary, the Enquiry Committee can recommend transfer of hostel or temporary suspension of hostel facilities for the defendant if both the complainant and the defendant stay in the same hostel.

VI. 3. (D) Withdrawal of Complaint

- a. The complainant may withdraw his/her complaint in writing at any time during the complaints receiving and/or enquiry procedure.
- b. The enquiry procedure shall, on such withdrawal, be terminated, save in instances in which the Enquiry Committee is informed, knows, or has reason to believe, that the reasons for such withdrawal are the consequences or effect of maternal inducement coercion and intimidation exerted by the defendant(s), or any person on her/his behalf, on the complainant. In such an instance, the enquiry proceedings shall continue in accordance with the procedure outlined in Sections VI.3(C) and VI.4 (C).

VI. 4. Formal Enquiry

GSCASH shall institute a formal enquiry and provide its resources to ensure the complainant's safety on the campus. For this purpose, the Chairperson of GSCASH shall convene an Emergency meeting within reasonable time not exceeding one week to constitute the Enquiry Committee. GSCASH shall designate from within the members of such committee the Chief Enquiry Officer who shall be a woman. The Co-ordinator for counsellors shall be a member or nominate a counsellor from the pool during the Enquiry Committee so as to be able to suggest about the need for counselling, the number of sittings and the payment per sitting.

- e. No person who is a complainant, witness, or defendant in the complaint of sexual harassment shall be a member of a GSCASH Enquiry Committee.
- f. The membership of an Enquiry Committee shall not be changed or in any other way modified during its proceedings, save for the provisions in Sections V.5 – 8.
- g. Members of GSCASH who are representatives of unions/associations of which the complainant and/or the defendant are also members, shall not be eligible to serve on an Enquiry Committee.
- h. GSCASH may, in its collective wisdom, co-opt any person(s) from JNU to be a part of an Enquiry Committee, provided that the majority of members are the members of GSCASH. Such a person shall not serve as the Chief Enquiry Officer.
- i. The member will also have to be bound by the oath of confidentiality.

VI. 4 (B) Functions of the Enquiry Committee

- a. The Enquiry Committee shall enquire into the complaint of sexual harassment using procedures in conformity with the principles of natural justice and gender sensitivity.
- b. The Enquiry Committee shall act on any violation of the order of restraint issued to the defendant in accordance with the procedure outlined in Section VI.3 (C). Enquiry Committee can recommend to the GSCASH and consider the violation at the time of giving its final recommendation.
- c. The Enquiry Committee shall submit a detailed report to GSCASH in which it shall communicate within three months its findings based on its investigations and its recommendations regarding the nature of disciplinary action, if any.

VI. 4 (C) Procedure to be followed by the Enquiry Committee

- a. The Enquiry Committee shall not, at any time in the enquiry proceedings, cause the defendant and the complainant and/or their witnesses to be placed face to face, or put in a situation where they may be face to face (e.g. they shall not be called at the same time and be made to wait in the same place), keeping strictly in view the need to protect the complainant from facing any serious health and/or safety problems, in accordance with the guidelines in the Supreme Court Judgement.
- b. The Enquiry Committee shall strive to complete the enquiry in the shortest possible time, not exceeding three months from the date that a complaint is referred to it, except for reasons that the Enquiry Committee shall provide in writing.
- c. The Enquiry Committee shall provide reasonable opportunity to the complainant and the defendant for presenting and defending her/his case.
- d. For the purpose of making an inquiry the Enquiry Committee, shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 when trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:-
 - (1) Summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him /her on oath;
 - (2) Requiring the discovery and production of documents / e-documents; and
 - (3) Any other matter which may be prescribed.The inquiry shall be completed within a period of ninety days.
- e. The Enquiry Committee may call any person to appear as a witness if it is of the opinion that it shall be in the interest of justice.
- f. The Enquiry Committee shall have the power to summon any official papers or documents/e-documents pertaining to the complainant as well as the defendant.
- g. The Enquiry Committee may consider as relevant any earlier complaints against the defendant. However, the past sexual history of the complainant shall not be probed into as such information shall be deemed irrelevant to a complaint of sexual harassment.
- h. The Enquiry Committee shall have the right to summon, as many times as required, the defendant, complainant and/or any witnesses for the purpose of supplementary testimony and/or clarifications.
- i. The Enquiry Committee shall recommend the GSCASH to terminate the enquiry proceedings and to give an ex-parte decision on the complaint, should the defendant fail, without valid ground, to present herself/himself for three consecutive hearings convened by the Chief Enquiry Officer. The recommendation to pass an ex-parte decision may be given by the Committee to GSCASH.
- j. The Chief Enquiry Officer shall inform the defendant and the complainant that counselling services can be made available if so desired.
- k. Within two days of the institution of enquiry proceedings by GSCASH, the Enquiry Committee shall prepare a summons containing details of the complaint such as the - location, date and time on which the incident is alleged to have occurred and shall hand over the same to the complainant (Form VI, Schedule 2) as well as to the defendant (Form VII, Schedule 2) along with a copy of the Rules and Procedures of GSCASH. It shall also intimate the defendant and the complainant the contact details of all members of the Enquiry Committee. The Enquiry Committee shall also make available to the defendant a true copy of the original complaint(s) lodged by the complainant(s).

- l. Within not more than two working days on the receipt of the first intimation of the enquiry, the complainant and the defendant shall submit to the Chief Enquiry Officer, in writing, a list of witnesses, together with their contact details, that she/he desires the Enquiry Committee to examine.
 - m. On receipt of the first intimation of the enquiry, and not more than two working days after such date, the complainant and/or the defendant shall inform the Chief Enquiry Officer whether they shall wish to exercise the rights afforded in Sections (p) – (r) below.
 - n. The Chief Enquiry Officer shall convene the first hearing of the enquiry. The defendant, the complainant, and witnesses shall be intimated at least seventy-two hours in advance in writing of the date, time and venue of the enquiry proceedings.
 - o. If the complainant, defendant, or witness desire to appear before the enquiry Committee accompanied by one companion of their choice, they shall communicate to the Chief Enquiry Officer the name of that person. Such a person shall have only observer status and her/his presence during proceedings shall be restricted to the testimony of the individual she/he is accompanying.
 - p. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Right to Information Act, 2005, the contents of the complaint, the identity and addresses of the aggrieved woman, respondent and witness, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the Enquiry Committee, and the action taken by the employer or the District Officer under the provisions of the GSCASH rule shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner: Provided that information may be disseminated regarding the Justice secured to any victim of sexual harassment under this rule without disclosing the name, address, identity or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the aggrieved woman and witnesses.
 - q. The complainant(s) and the defendant, or any one person on her/his behalf, shall have the right to examine written transcripts of the recordings with the exclusion of witnesses' names and identities. Any person nominated by the complainant and/or the defendant on her/his behalf shall be (only) either a student, or a member of the academic or non-teaching staff of Jawaharlal Nehru University. No person who has been found guilty of sexual harassment shall be accepted as a nominee. The complainant(s)/defendant should inform the Chief Enquiry Officer specifically if they wish to exercise this right. The Chief Enquiry Officer may allow access to such documents on a specific date to be intimated at least two days in advance to each of the parties concerned. At no point in time, however, can the concerned parties take these documents outside the office of the GSCASH.
 - r. The complainant and the defendant shall have the right of cross-examination of all witnesses. Such cross-examination shall be conducted in the form of written questions and responses via the Enquiry Committee.
 - s. The defendant/complainant shall submit to the Chief Enquiry Officer, a written list of questions that she/he desires to pose to the witness. The Enquiry Committee shall - retain the right to disallow any questions that it has reason to believe to be irrelevant, mischievous, or gender-insensitive. Any behaviour, verbal or otherwise, on the part of the defendant or her/his nominee, that is designed to intimidate or subject the complainant to mental and physical trauma, shall be construed as a violation of the order of restraint issued by GSCASH as defined in Section VI.3 (C) herein.

- t. The complainant and the defendant shall be responsible for presenting their witnesses before the Enquiry Committee. However, if the Enquiry Committee is convinced that the absence of either of the parties to the disputes is on valid grounds, the Enquiry Committee shall adjourn that particular meeting of the Committee for a period not exceeding five days. The meeting so adjourned shall be conducted thereafter, even if the person concerned fails to appear for the said adjourned meeting without prior intimation/valid ground.
 - u. All proceedings of the Enquiry Committee shall be recorded in writing and the same together with the statement of witnesses shall be endorsed by the persons concerned in token of authenticity thereof.
 - v. All persons heard by the Enquiry Committee, shall take and observe an oath of secrecy about the proceedings. Any violation of the oath of secrecy may invite the full range of penalties outlined in Section IX.
 - w. If the complainant desires to tender any documents by way of evidence, the Enquiry Committee shall supply true copies of such documents to the defendant. Similarly, if the defendant desires to tender any documents in evidence, the Enquiry Committee shall supply true copies of such documents to the complainant.
 - x. In the event that the Enquiry Committee thinks that supplementary testimony is required, the Chief Enquiry Officer shall forward to the persons concerned a summary of the proceedings and allow for a time period of seven days to submit such testimony, in person or in writing, to the Enquiry Committee.
 - y. After concluding its investigation, the Enquiry Committee shall submit a detailed report of its findings to the Chairperson of GSCASH within a period of ten days. In the event that it finds the defendant guilty of sexual harassment, it shall also recommend the nature of disciplinary action to be taken on the complaint as referred in Section IX. It shall also recommend whether GSCASH and the University authorities should, after disciplinary action has been taken, publicise the identity of the offender, the act and the disciplinary action taken. If the Enquiry Committee finds no merit in the complaint, it shall write to the Chairperson of GSCASH, giving reasons for its conclusions.
 - z. Nothing precludes GSCASH from taking cognisance of any new fact or evidence which may arise or be brought before it during the pendency of the enquiry proceedings and even after the communication of the findings to appropriate University authorities, provided that in the latter case, the composition of the reconvened Enquiry Committee shall be at least half of the members of the Enquiry Committee that originally enquired into the said complaint.

VII. COMMUNICATION OF FINDINGS

VII (i) Within 3 working days of the receipt of the report and recommendations of the Enquiry Committee, the Chairperson of GSCASH shall convene an Emergency meeting. Each member of GSCASH shall have the right to access the entire enquiry proceedings, or any part thereof, and to participate in GSCASH deliberations on the complaint. Within 2 working days of the adoption of the report of the Enquiry Committee, the Chairperson of GSCASH shall forward the report of the Enquiry Committee, together with a summary of the opinions of the members of GSCASH (including dissenting opinions) to the Vice-Chancellor for consideration of appropriate University authorities - the Executive Council for faculty members and group 'A' officers, and the Vice-Chancellor, for students and other employees. After the GSCASH submits the findings to the competent authority, specifying its recommendations, the administration is entrusted with the duty of sending the final copy of the report to the complainant and the defendant for the purpose of appeal.

VII(ii) Within a reasonable period of time, and not in any case exceeding 30 days from the date of communication of its findings by GSCASH, the appropriate University authority shall convene a meeting with GSCASH, in which at least two-thirds of the Enquiry Committee shall be present, to discuss the findings and recommendations of the Enquiry Committee.

(a) Where the Enquiry Committee, arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has not been proved, it shall recommend to the Appropriate Authority through Vice Chancellor that no action is required to be taken in the matter.

(b) Where the Enquiry Committee, arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has been proved, it shall recommend to the Appropriate Authority :

(c) to take action for sexual harassment as a misconduct in accordance with the provisions of the service rules applicable to the respondent or where no such service rules have been made, in such manner as may be prescribed;

(d) To deduct, notwithstanding anything in the service rules applicable to the respondent, from the salary or wages of respondent such sum as it may consider appropriate to be paid to the aggrieved woman or to her legal heirs, as it may determine, in accordance with the provisions of section IX

(e) Provided that in case the employer is unable to make such deduction from the salary of the respondent due to his being absent from duty or cessation of employment it may direct to the respondent to pay such sum to the aggrieved woman:

(f) Provided further that in case the respondent fails to pay the sum referred to in clause (ii), the GSCASH may forward the order for recovery of the sum as an arrear of land revenue to the concerned District Officer.

(g)The Appropriate Authority shall act upon the recommendation within sixty days of its receipt.

VIII. OBLIGATIONS OF UNIVERSITY AUTHORITIES AND FUNCTIONARIES
